THE VALUE ADDED TAX ACT 1998

Regulations made by the Minister under section 72
of the Value Added Tax Act 1998

1. Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Value Added Tax Regulations 1998.

2. Interpretation

In these regulations -

“Act” means the Value Added Tax Act 1998;

3. Charge to value added tax ¹

For the purposes of section 9(4)(b) of the Act, the prescribed time shall be 20 days.

4. Registration

(1) A person who applies for registration under section 15 or 16 of the Act shall produce such documents, and furnish such information in support of his application, as the Director-General may require. ²

(2) A registered person shall declare, electronically or otherwise, the VAT Registration Number allocated to him under section 17 of the Act on every bill of entry submitted by him at Customs.

GN 87/1998 :- For the purposes of section 9(4)(b) of the Act, the prescribed time shall be one month.

² The MRA Act - The word “Commissioner” deleted and replaced by the word “Director-General” wherever it was appearing previously.

- (3) Where a registered person -
- (a) changes his name or trading name;
 - (b) changes the address of any of his business premises;
 - (c) opens any new business premises; or
 - (d) changes the nature of his business,

he shall immediately notify in writing the Director-General and return to the Director-General his certificate of registration and all its copies.

(4) On receipt of a notification under paragraph (3) the Director-General may, after considering such information he may require, amend the certificate or issue a fresh certificate to the registered person.

(5) Every registered person shall display in a conspicuous place at each of his business premises –

- (a) his certificate or a photocopy of his certificate; and
- (b) a distinctive mark provided by the Director-General to indicate that the person is registered for VAT.

(6) Where a registered person operates –

- (a) at a place other than his usual place of business; or
- (b) at a trade fair,

he shall give at least 7 days' prior notice thereof to the Director-General in writing.

(7) On receipt of a notice under paragraph (6), the Director-General may require the registered person to furnish such information and to make such arrangements as may be necessary in order to ensure that VAT is properly accounted for.

5. Receipt and Invoice

A registered person who issues a receipt or invoice under section 19 of the Act shall specify in the receipt or invoice -

- (a) his name, business address and his VAT Registration Number;
- (b) its serial number and date of issue;
- (c) the quantity and description of the goods or the description of the services;
- (d) the value of the supply indicating whether the value is inclusive or exclusive of VAT; and
- (e) in case the value of the supply is exclusive of VAT, the amount of VAT chargeable and the rate applied.

6. Record

(1) A person who imports goods or to whom a supply of goods or services is made shall keep a record, on computer or otherwise, in respect of those goods or services showing -

- (a) the bill of entry number and date;
- (b) the date on which the goods or services are supplied;
- (c) the date and reference number of the receipt or invoice or VAT invoice;
- (d) description of the goods or services;
- (e) in the case of goods imported, the value for VAT purposes and the amount of VAT;
- (f) in the case of goods or services supplied to him, the value of the supply and the amount of VAT where it is evidenced by a VAT invoice; and
- (g) particulars of debit notes received.

(2) A person who exports goods or supplies goods or services shall keep a record, on computer or otherwise, in respect of those goods or services showing – ¹

- (a) the bill of entry number and date;
- (b) the date on which the goods or services are supplied;
- (c) the date and reference number of the receipt or invoice or VAT invoice;
- (d) description of the goods or services;
- (e) in the case of goods exported, the value of the goods ;
- (f) in the case of goods or services supplied by him, the value of the supply and if he is a registered person, the amount of VAT chargeable; and
- (g) particulars of credit notes issued.

7. Record of stocktaking

A registered person shall, for the purposes of the Act, keep a record, on computer or otherwise, a record of any physical stocktaking of goods made.

8. VAT invoice

Every VAT invoice, other than a computer-generated VAT invoice, shall indicate the name and address of the printer.

GN 87/1998 :- A person who exports goods shall keep a record, on computer or otherwise, in respect of those goods or services showing -

8A. Alternative basis of apportionment of input tax ¹

(1) Where a registered person claims, having regard to the nature of his business, that the apportionment of input tax in accordance with section 21(3)(b) of the Act is not fair and reasonable, he may, for the purposes of section 21(3)(d) of the Act, make an application to the Director-General to use an alternative basis of apportionment of input tax.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be in such form as may be approved by the Director-General and shall include -

- (a) the reasons for which the apportionment of input tax in accordance with section 21(3)(b) of the Act is not fair and reasonable;
- (b) the description of the alternative basis of apportionment; and
- (c) such other information as may be specified in the form of application.

(3) On receipt of an application under paragraph (1), the Director-General may require such further information or document as may be necessary for the purposes of considering the alternative basis of apportionment.

(4) Where the Director-General is satisfied that, in relation to the business of the registered person, an alternative basis of apportionment would give a fair and reasonable apportionment of input tax, he may, by notice in writing, approve such alternative basis on such conditions as are specified in paragraph (5).

(5) An approval under paragraph (4) shall be subject to the following conditions -

- (a) the approved alternative basis of apportionment shall take effect as from the beginning of the accounting period of the registered person following the date of the approval;
- (b) the registered person shall maintain appropriate records so that the alternative basis of apportionment can be readily verified by the Director-General.²
- (c) where changes in the circumstances of the business no longer render the alternative basis fair and reasonable, the registered person shall, not later than one month after the occurrence of these circumstances, notify the Director-General in writing;
- (d) the registered person shall continue to apply the alternative basis of apportionment until such time as the Director-General otherwise notifies the person in writing.
